Career in details

Live musician (since 1999) and arranger/orchestrator (since 2001)

I regularly play many kinds of music: swing, traditional jazz, blues, RnB, soul, funk, rock'n'roll, rock, bossa nova, samba, tango. I play acoustic and electric guitar and bass. I sing in Italian, English, Spanish and Portuguese (Brazilian).

In my career, I played in different countries and important locations: Teatro dei Filodrammatici, Blue Note (Milano), Teatro Elfo Puccini, House of Blues and Jazz (Shanghai), Teatro Gerolamo, national TVs and radios.

I collaborated as a performer, arranger/orchestrator and session man with several singers and songwriters with different backgrounds (folk, ethnic, pop, jazz): Gnut, Folco Orselli, Patrizia Di Malta, Gioman & Killacat, The Apricot Tree, Stefano Piro, Yalda, Stefano Tessadri, Gipo Gurrado.

2004 - I was hosted at Premio Barzizza, together with musicians like Riz Ortolani, Riccardo Zegna, Lino Patruno: the compilation CD "Un sanremese a Londra", recorded for the event, includes a song arranged by me ("L'amore è cieco").

2008 and 2009 - I was the arranger/orchestrator of Caterraduno, a live event organised by the radio program Caterpillar (Radio 2).

2009 - TV appearances in the shows "Parla con me" and "Tg3 Linea notte", with Ottavo Richter band (RAI 3 channel).

2009 - I orchestrated horns for Flavio Premoli, author of the original soundtrack of TV movie "Occhio a quei due" (Canale 5 channel).

2019 - I started my own singer/songwriter project, Kape: the album "Cliché" went out in January 2020 (La Stanza Nascosta Records).

Composer, sound designer (since 2002)

I compose in different styles, both acoustic and electronic, from classical orchestra to metal atmosphere.

2012-2015 - Collaboration with 4friends film for Miu Miu e Prada. I composed music for web, together with Fabio Visocchi and Andrea Cassano.

2018 - Started a collaboration with the stop-motion artist Dario Imbrogno and the set designer Elena Borghi, working for brands like Alberta Ferretti, Nutella, Dodo (short videos for advertising).

2020, 2021 - I composed music for advertising for the Italian fashion brand Mantù and yogurt Fage.

2022 - I worked (as a composer and sound designer) in two video games productions: "Polyfarm", an NFT-based web game, and "Mr Candy", for mobile phones.

Producer, audio technician (since 2010)

I started to record and mix my own compositions, and after some years I worked for other bands in several albums, facing different kinds of music.

2015 - "Chinatown swing folies" Delirium jazz band (traditional jazz)

2016 - "GIF" Ottavo Richter (multi-genre)

2019 - The Apricot Tree (swing)

2020 - La Postazione (dream pop)

Teacher (since 2004) and other experiences

2007-2011

Accademia Musicale d'Arte e Musica (Monza)

2015-2018

Art&Musica (Milano)

since 2011

Centro Musica Insieme (Nova Milanese)

2011-2014

Accademia Arcadia (Milano)

since 2020

Prime Note (Monza)

In addition to instrument and music production lessons, I perform collective labs and conferences about several arguments: composition, improvisation, harmony, interplay, interpretation, soundtrack music.

November 2018: I was invited as visiting lecturer by Prof. Davide Pinardi (Course of Storytelling Techniques) at Politecnico Milano, for a lesson about the role and importance of soundtracks in videomaking.

I've been a radio host from 2017 to 2020, together with other three members of Ottavo Richter band, for the program "Notte vulnerabile" (Radio Popolare).

In 2020, I published a book, "La musica in-visibile" (Porto Seguro, Milano), about the analysis of music in movies.

Education (1991-1999)

1991-1997 - Classical guitar studies

1996-1998 - Jazz harmony and improvisation.

2004 - Graduated in Sciences and Technologies of Communication, final thesis (in History and Criticism of Film): "Analysis of a soundtrack."

October 2020 - Started to study Audio Technician at Civica Scuola di Musica Claudio Abbado (Milano).
